

Programme:

Time	Activity
9.00- 9.30am	Registration and Coffee
9.30am	Welcome and housekeeping arrangements
9.45am	Keynote Speaker, Andrew Dilger. "Published resources versus teaching unplugged" Integrating published resources creatively and effectively to sustain motivation in teachers and students
11.00am	Coffee
11.15am	Morning workshops - Select one from 4
12.45pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Afternoon workshops - Select 1 from 4
3.30pm	Coffee and close

Workshop choices: Please note, the same workshops are offered morning and afternoon.

Workshop	Presenter	Topic/ Theme
A	Johanna Stirling	Writing and spelling routes less travelled. Lots of activities and techniques for helping learners whose speaking is better than their writing or who have problems with spelling.
B	Ian Badger	Putting authentic listening skills at the heart of language learning. Students often say they can't understand English spoken outside class. In this session Ian will present some authentic listening skills for the classroom.
C	Philida Schellekens	English Language in the Vocational Context What language skills do students really need to succeed in a vocational context? Come along to this session to find out.
D	Angela Buckingham	Encouraging extensive reading: the benefits of and approaches to extensive reading.